

BEN BALOW

NRHA Professional & Judge

What made you decide to get into horse training? I grew up ranching around Arizona. I loved the lifestyle and industry plus I always had a passion for the horse.

How did you get into reining? I went to my first horse show while working for Mike Drennan and saw my 1st reining horse. I knew right away that's what I wanted to do. I went to work for Brett Stone and then Bill Horn before going out on my own in 1990.

Why is being involved with the AzRHA important to your business? It's the grass roots of the reining industry. It provides an opportunity for beginners to get started without the pressure or cost of the bigger shows. I've been a member for over 25 years and it's the backbone of my business.

What do you like to do when you're not at the barn or at a show? I love going to Lake Powell for fishing and fun with family.
